Indiana State University

Sycamore Scholars

Course Catalogs

University Archives

1945

Catalog, 1945 December

Indiana State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholars.indianastate.edu/course

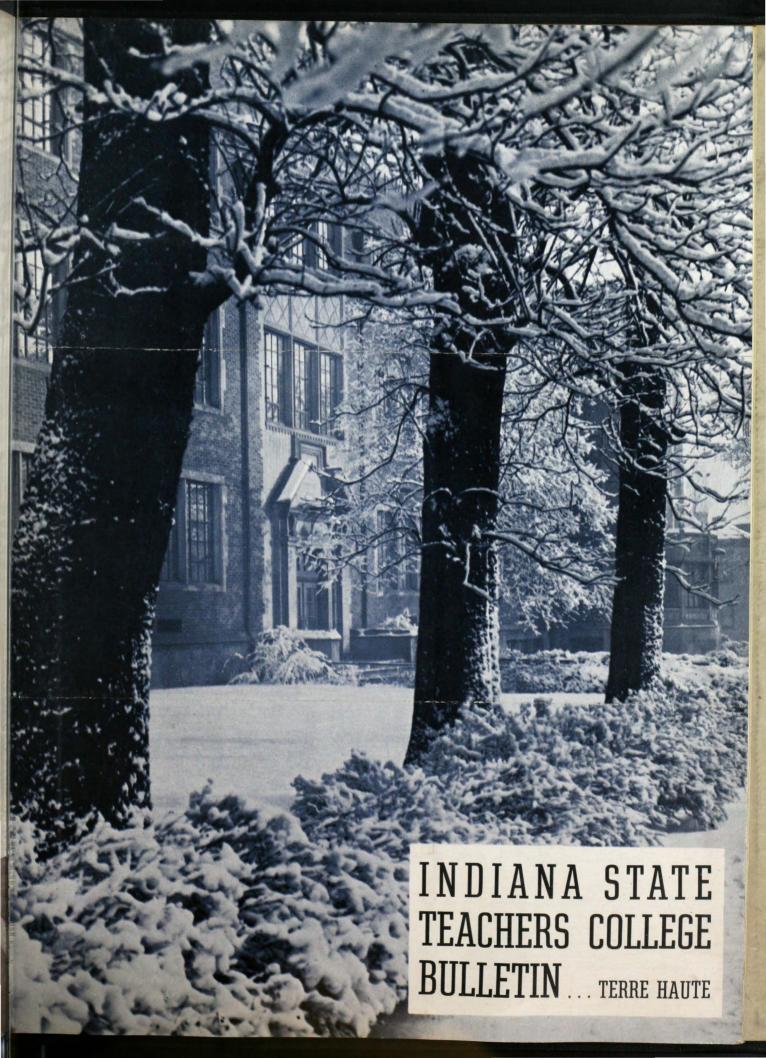

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the Higher Education Administration Commons

Recommended Citation

Indiana State University, "Catalog, 1945 December" (1945). Course Catalogs. 113. https://scholars.indianastate.edu/course/113

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at Sycamore Scholars. It has been accepted for inclusion in Course Catalogs by an authorized administrator of Sycamore Scholars. For more information, please contact dana.swinford@indstate.edu.

You Know Your Students . . . .

Many high school boys and girls possess the qualities of good teachers. Principals and teachers have an excellent chance to guide those students into the teaching profession. All educators are aware of the serious shortage of teachers in many fields and the fact that replenishments are urgently needed makes the profession a great field of opportunity. Though the greatest shortage is on the elementary level, an adequate number of prospective teachers for all subject matter areas must be trained.

SPRING QUARTER March 18 - June 8

Indiana State trains for education in its broadest sense. Classroom teaching, school administration, social service, adult education, private schools, drama and music teaching, vocational education, industrial training schools, and all fields of public and private education are included in its broad term. The College is pleased by the high percentage of its graduates who achieve success in classroom teaching and school administration.

MID-SPRING TERM April 29 - June 8

Among the conferences and clinics held annually on the campus are the state solo and ensemble auditions for high school musicians, the commerce clinic and business proficiency contests, speech arts festival, and summer music clinic, elementary, and nutrition workshop.

FIRST SUMMER TERM June 10 - July 12

SECOND SUMMER TERM July 15 - August 16

In line with progressive trends, Indiana State accepts without question the graduation requirements of all first class high schools. There are no special requirements in foreign language, English, mathematics, etc.

Indiana State offers scholarships in each county of the state and they are renewable from year to year.

Requirements for a degree and teaching certificate can be finished in three years from the time students first enter Indiana State.

Indiana State offers special opportunities for returned veterans.

Pictured on the front is the College Laboratory School where students learn to teach through teaching.